Punjab.

The Indian Independence Act, which became law on July 18, 1947, abolished the province of Punjab and allotted the new province of East Punjab to the Dominion of India and the new province of West Punjab to the Dominion of Pakistan.-cf. Whitaker's Almanack, 1948.

In 1950, the Indian Government renamed the East Punjab the Punjab. The Pakistan Government similarly renamed the West Punjab.-cf. Whitaker's Almanack, 1951. For purposes of clarity this catalog continued to enter the publications of Punjab (India) under East Punjab and those of Punjab (Pakistan) under West Punjab, 1950-Sept. 1955.

In Oct. 1955 the West Punjab ceased to exist when it was incorporated into the new Pakistan province of West Pakistan. Publications of the only remaining Punjab, the Indian State, beginning Oct. 1955 were returned to the original entry, Punjab.

On Nov. 1, 1956 incorporated the former Patiala and East Punjab States Union.
